

ANMF Newsflash: LGH Acute Medical Unit (AMU)

The Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation Tasmanian Branch (ANMF) have been contacted by the Tasmanian Health Service (THS) to advise that AMU have now ceased lockdown and that the requirement to work the altered shift times is no longer necessary.

Management have advised the ANMF that as of Sunday 31 May 2020, shift times will be reverting to the status quo prior to the lockdown change of shift time.

The ANMF encourage members to raise any concerns regarding the above with your Nurse Unit Manager in the first instance. ANMF Organiser Kylie Stubbs will be attending your workplace on Friday 29 May 2020 at 1430 hrs to discuss any outstanding concerns.

The ANMF will continue to advocate for members during this difficult time, with further updates and advice provided as they come to hand. If you have any queries please do not hesitate to contact our Member Support Team via membersupport@anmftas.org.au or for urgent matters phone 1800 001 241.

Please note: Due to the current COVID-19 situation, our Member Support Team are now practicing social isolation measures and working from home. Bearing this in mind, email is the preferred and fastest way of contacting them.
