Royal Hobart Hospital Mental Health Inpatient Unit

Expressions of Interest Called for Health and Safety Representatives

The Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation Tasmanian Branch (ANMF) are calling for Expressions of Interest (EOI) for Health and Safety Representatives (HSR) to be located inside the Mental Health Inpatient Unit (MHIU) at the Royal Hobart Hospital (RHH). This notice is to provide fair and equal access to all persons who may wish to take on HSR duties.

The ANMF represent the nursing and Assistant in Nursing (AIN) component of the MHIU workforce, so, if you are interested in becoming a HSR and are not eligible for ANMF membership, please contact your relevant Union or manager to express your interest.

You may find relevant information on the following website: <https://worksafe.tas.gov.au/topics/Health-and-Safety/managing-safety/health-and-safety-representatives-hsr>

Please send a written EOI (just needs to include your name and work role) to ANMF Southern Organiser Jenna Bowling via email: Jenna.Bowling@anmftas.org.au by no later than Friday 19 May 2023.

The ANMF Tasmanian Branch is 8000 plus members strong! Supporting nurses, midwives, and care workers as the only union in Tasmania employing nurses, midwives and care workers to represent members. This is why our Organisers and Member Support Team are uniquely positioned to understand your experiences, represent you in your workplace, and offer industrial advice that's relevant to you.

If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact our Member Support Team via email on membersupport@anmftas.org.au. Email is the preferred and fastest way of contacting the team. Alternatively, you can phone (03) 6223 6777.
