The ANMF Onsite Tomorrow - Have Your Say

The Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation Tasmanian Branch (ANMF) will be onsite at Hobart Private Hospital tomorrow, Wednesday 9 September from 1230hrs to speak with nurses, midwives and care workers about the proposed transition from Healthscope to Calvary Health Care.

This is an opportunity to ask questions, raise concerns, and discuss what the change may mean for you and your workplace.

Complete Our Survey

We are asking all staff to complete a short survey to help us represent members throughout the consultation process.

The survey allows you to:

- Update your contact details.
- Request information about joining the ANMF.
- Raise concerns or questions about the transition.
- Identify workplace issues the ANMF should address.
- Express interest in becoming an ANMF delegate.

Interested in Becoming an ANMF Delegate?

Strong workplace representation will be important during and after the transition to Calvary.

ANMF delegates are the link between members and the union. They help ensure workplace concerns are identified early, information is shared quickly, and staff have a strong collective voice.

If you'd like to support your colleagues and improve ongoing union support at Hobart Private Hospital, we'd love to hear from you.

You can speak with us onsite or register your interest through the survey.

STRONGER TOGETHER

The ANMF is representing members throughout this process. Your voice matters, so have your say and get involved.

The ANMF Tasmanian Branch is 8000 plus members strong! Supporting nurses, midwives, and care workers as the only union in Tasmania employing nurses, midwives and care workers to represent members. This is why our Organisers and Member Support Team are uniquely positioned to understand your experiences, represent you in your workplace, and offer industrial advice that's relevant to you.
