Statewide Mental Health Services Member Update

Stage Two Relocation from 110 Collins Street to 175 Collins Street On Hold

The Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation Tasmanian Branch (ANMF) has received confirmation from the Department that the Stage Two Change Proposal is currently on hold.

The Department has advised that an alternative workplace arrangement has been put in place, allowing affected employees to remain at 110 Collins Street. These changes were implemented quickly, and the Department has indicated it is not yet clear how long this arrangement will continue.

For now, there are no further changes proposed under Stage Two, and the proposal will remain on hold while the current arrangements are being reviewed.

The ANMF will continue to monitor the situation closely and seek further information from the Department as it becomes available. We remain committed to keeping members informed and ensuring any workplace changes are appropriately communicated and consulted on.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact our Member Support Team or Workplace Organiser.

The ANMF Tasmanian Branch is 8000 plus members strong! Supporting nurses, midwives, and care workers as the only union in Tasmania employing nurses, midwives and care workers to represent
