

ANMF EA UPDATE 29

Corumbene
Nurses Vote Yes

Corumbene management has informed the Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation Tasmanian Branch (ANMF) that a strong majority of nurses voted Yes to the proposed Nurses Agreement.

This good result is a testament to the hard work put in by your ANMF delegates at the bargaining table and in communicating with members.

Nurses Agreement results

Corumbene management has informed the ANMF that:

- 18 employees participated in the ballot, representing approximately 70% of eligible employees.
- 16 voted Yes; and,
- 2 voted No.

Corumbene management will proceed to provide nurses with the benefits of the agreement. We expect this to occur in the next pay period and will provide more information.

- As previously reported, Corumbene management agreed to the ANMF's request to provide the benefits without waiting for formal Fair Work Commission (FWC) approval of the agreement.

General Agreement results

Corumbene management has informed the ANMF that:

- 79 employees participated in the ballot, representing approximately 70.5% of eligible employees.

- 40 voted No; and,
- 39 voted Yes.

This result means that bargaining will continue for the General Agreement.
