COMMISSIONER TRAN

MELBOURNE, 8 APRIL 2025

Application for approval of the Healthe Care Burnie Pty Ltd – North West Private Hospital Nurses’ Enterprise Agreement 2024 - Approved with variation under s 218A

[1] Healthe Care Burnie Pty Ltd (ABN: 34121815807) has applied for approval of an enterprise agreement known as the Healthe Care Burnie Pty Ltd – North West Private Hospital Nurses’ Enterprise Agreement 2024 under s 185 of the Fair Work Act 2009.

[2] The Agreement is a single enterprise agreement.

[3] I observe that the following clauses are likely to be inconsistent with the National Employment Standards:

- Clause 43 – Regarding personal leave (evidence)
- Clause 43(c) – Regarding carers leave (notice)
- Appendix A.10 – Regarding deductions

[4] I note clause 8 of the Agreement, which gives precedence to the NES and am satisfied that the more beneficial entitlements of the NES will prevail where there is an inconsistency between the Agreement and the NES.

[5] I am satisfied that each requirement of ss186, 187 and 188 as are relevant to this application for approval have been met.

[6] The Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation (ANMF) and the Health Services Union (HSU) both lodged Form F18 statutory declarations giving notice under s 183 of the Act that they want the Agreement to cover them. In accordance with s 201(2) of the Act, I note the Agreement covers the unions.

[7] The Agreement is approved and, in accordance with s 54 of the Act, will operate from 15 April 2025.

[8] In accordance with clause 6(a), the nominal expiry date of the Agreement is 30 June 2027.

Variation under s 218A

[9] Section 218A of the Act allows the Commission to correct or amend obvious errors, defects or irregularities. It is a discretionary power, and the Commission must first be satisfied that the identified errors or amendments sought are obvious errors, defects or irregularities.

[10] I determined to vary the Agreement on my own initiative, following the identification of an error in the rate for RN1 Year 7 in the wage rate schedule at Appendix 1.

[11] The Applicant provided an amended copy of the Agreement, with only the amendments identified above.

[12] I am satisfied that the amendments should be made and that it is appropriate to do so in accordance with s 218A. The variation will operate from the date the Agreement commences.

[13] The Agreement attached to this Decision is the Agreement as varied and will operate from 15 April 2025. The nominal expiry date of the Agreement as varied is 30 June 2027.

51. DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURE

- (a) Where disciplinary action may be necessary, the management representative shall notify the Employee of the issues in writing and the Employee will be given an opportunity to respond to these issues. In the event that the Employee's response is unsatisfactory, a first warning in writing may be issued. This warning will be recorded on the Employee's personnel file.
- (b) If there are further performance or conduct issues, the Employee will again be notified in writing of the matter and a response requested from the Employee. If appropriate, a second warning in writing will be given to the Employee and recorded on the Employee's personnel file.
- (c) In the event that there are further performance or conduct issues, the Employee will again be notified in writing of the matter and a response requested. If appropriate, a final written warning will be issued to the Employee and recorded on the Employee's personnel file.
- (d) In the event of further performance or conduct issues, then the Employee may be terminated after the matters have been investigated and reasons sought from the Employee.
- (e) Notwithstanding the above process, for serious matters pertaining to conduct or performance the Employer may also issue a "final warning" in the first instance. A "final warning" shall be such that the Employee is notified that in the event that there are further performance or conduct issues the Employee may be terminated. Further, termination or summary dismissal of an Employee may still occur for acts of serious misconduct.
- (f) During all steps in the Disciplinary Procedure, the Employee has the right to representation of his or her choice. The Employer may be represented by the representative of their choice.
- (g) Records relating to disciplinary procedures will be disregarded where a continuous period of 12 months elapses without further warning/s.
- (h) This clause shall not apply until the Employee has completed a period of employment with the Employer of at least the minimum employment period as prescribed in the Act.

52. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

Notice of termination by the Employer

- (a) In order to terminate the employment of the Employee, where employed on a full-time or part-time basis, the Employer shall give to the Employee the period of notice specified in the table below:

Period of continuous service	Period of notice

Over 1 year and up to the completion of 3 years	2 weeks
Over 3 years and up to the completion of 5 years	3 weeks

- (b) In addition to this notice, where the Employee is over 45 years of age at the time of the giving of the notice with not less than two years continuous service, they will be entitled to an additional weeks' notice.
 - (c) Payment in lieu of the notice will be made if the appropriate notice period is not required to be worked. Provided that employment may be terminated by the Employee working part of the required period of notice and by the Employer making payment for the remainder of the period of notice.
 - (d) In calculating any payment in lieu of notice, the wages the Employee would have received in respect of the ordinary time they would have worked during the period of notice had their employment not been terminated will be used.
 - (e) The period of notice in this Clause shall not apply in the case of dismissal for serious misconduct, or in the case of casual Employees or Employees engaged for a specific period of time or for a specific task or tasks.

Notice of termination by the Employee

- (f) The notice of termination required to be given by the Employee is the same as that required of the Employer, save and except that there is no requirement on the Employee to give additional notice based on the age of the Employee concerned.
- (g) If an Employee who is at least 18 years old does not give the period of notice required under subclause (f), then the Employer may deduct from wages due to the Employee under this Agreement an amount that is no more than one week's wages for the Employee.

Instant dismissal

- (h) The Employer shall have the right to dismiss the Employee without notice for serious misconduct as defined by Regulation 1.07 of the Fair Work Regulations and in such cases the wages shall be paid up to the time of dismissal only.

53. REDUNDANCY

(a) Introduction of Change

(i) Employer's duty to notify and consult-

Where the Employer has made a definite decision to introduce a major change to production, program, organisation, structure, or technology in relation to its enterprise; and the change is likely to have a significant effect on Employees of the Employer, the Employer shall consult with affected Employees in accordance with the consultation regarding change provision of this Agreement.

(b) Voluntary Redundancy

In the event that it is necessary for the Employer to make a position(s) redundant, or voluntarily reduce or alter hours which causes a loss of Employees' income, the Employer will, in the first instance, seek expressions of interest from all staff, in volunteering for a redundancy package.

PROVIDED that, the Employer will only be required to seek such expressions of interest from staff employed at the same worksite, in the same classification, with the same hours as the position being made redundant.

In assessing applications for voluntary redundancy, either as a result of a position(s) being redundant or through the reduction or alteration of a position(s) hours which causes a loss of an Employee's income, the parties acknowledge that the Employer will take into account the skill and operational requirements of the enterprise.

(c) Notice Period

The Employer undertakes to provide the maximum possible notice of the need to make a position(s) redundant. In all cases however, the minimum period of notice for Employees subject to redundancy will be two (2) weeks.

(d) Redundancy Payment

In the event of any redundancies being made necessary, and subject to subclause (e), the Employer shall pay the following payment to any Employee made redundant providing that such payment is no less than the severance prescribed under the NES:

	Aged less than 45 years			Aged 45 years and over

5 less than 6	4	10	14	5	10	15
6 less than 7	4	11	15	5	11	16
7 less than 8	4	13	17	5	13	18
8 less than 9	4	14	18	5	14	19
9 and over	4	16	20	5	16	21

For the purposes of this clause, a week's full pay shall mean the weekly base rate for the classification for the Employee's ordinary hours of work; and any applicable penalties; and any all-purpose work related allowances.

(e) All staff who are made redundant shall be given assistance by the Employer in seeking suitable alternative employment. Such staff will be granted time off with pay to seek alternative employment or to make arrangements for training or re-training. Provided that in the case where the Employer facilitates acceptable alternative employment for an Employee, including the transfer of all entitlements, the provisions of this redundancy clause shall not apply.

- (f) Acceptable alternative employment for the purposes of subclause (e) will have been provided where the Employee is transferred to:
 - (i) a position which reflects the individual skills of that Employee; and
 - (ii) a position which, as a minimum, provides the same financial and employment benefits (including security of employment) as the position which no longer exists.
 - (g) This clause shall not apply in the case of casual Employees.
 - (h) In the case of a transfer of employment (as defined in the Act), section 122 of the Act shall apply.

2. Hours banked under this provision will be banked on the basis of their ordinary time equivalent.
3. Overtime hours banked under this provision will be banked on the basis of clause 37(b).
4. Hours worked under this provision outside the spread of ordinary hours will be converted to the applicable penalty rate equivalent (for example, 3 hours worked on a Saturday will use 4 1/2 hours of banked time)
5. A nursing Employee may not accumulate more than one-hundred and fifty-two (152) hours of normal hours (positive or negative) in her/his bank at any one time.
6. Nursing Employees who have accumulated hours to be worked must be given first option to work additional hours prior to the use of on-call or casual nursing Employees.
7. A nursing Employee who agrees to work banked hours on a shift on which a shift allowance is payable shall receive a pro rata allowance for those hours worked on that shift.
8. The Employer must keep proper records of all hours accrued and worked by each nursing Employee.
9. A nursing Employee shall be entitled to full access to her/his record of hours accrued and worked under this provision.
10. Where on termination of employment a nursing Employee has not worked all her/his banked hours, the Employer may deduct monies paid to the nursing Employee for those banked hours for any entitlements owing to the nursing Employee by the Employer including payment for accrued annual leave and long service leave at the ordinary rate of pay.
11. Where on termination a nursing Employee has not taken time off in lieu of additional hours worked, the nursing Employee will be paid in accordance with the arrangements set out at clause 37(e)(iii).
12. Banked hours will be taken at times mutually agreed between the Employer and Employee.
13. Where an Employee is required to make-up hours those hours may be worked in shifts of up to 10 hours duration by mutual agreement at ordinary time for the purposes of making-up time up to ordinary contracted hours for a particular week or roster cycle.
14. Banked hours must be taken within 12 months of accrual. Similarly, an Employee must make up any hours owed to the Employer within 12 months.

APPENDIX B –PRINCIPLES OF WORKLOAD MANAGEMENT

The following principles will be applied as necessary in staffing each unit/area in order to ensure efficient use of resources while maintaining workloads that are not unreasonable for employees to deliver high quality patient care.

1. Duty to prevent sustained unreasonable workload

The Employer shall ensure that the work to be performed by an Employee to whom this arrangement applies constitutes a workload at a level that is not a sustained manifestly unfair or unreasonable workload having regard to the skills, experience and classification of the Employee.

2. Duty to allocate and roster nurses in accordance with process consistent with reasonable workload principles

- 2.1 Reasonable workload principles shall include the application of Work Hours per Patient Day (WHpPD) model.
- 2.2 At each ward and unit, the Nurse Unit Manager (NUM) shall consult with the Hospital Executive and nursing staff on the application of the WHpPD workload tool. Consideration will be given to direct nursing hours and will not include NUM and Clinical Educator non-clinical hours.
- 2.3 The following total nursing WHpPD for each area shall be used as a guide to minimum requirements
 - Medical/Surgical – 5.35 WHPPD
 - High Observation Unit – 8.5 WHPPD
 - Mental Health – 4.79 WHPPD weekdays, 4.13 WHPPD weekends.
 - Theatre: Per ACORN Standards

3. Key Principles

- 3.1 Medical/Surgical – the minimum WHPPD of 5.35 is in consideration of, and subject to, the following:
 - a) The ward in-charge will be allocated a 50% patient load in the absence of a NUM on AM and PM shifts.
 - b) Where clinically assessed as appropriate by the relevant Hospital or Ward in-charge (noting the Hospital in-charge has final decision-making authority):
 - (i) the AM patient mix, as a guide will be, three (3) day one post op patients and one other lower acuity patient or 4 acute medical and surgical patients.
 - (ii) The PM patient mix, as a guide will be, three (3) day one post op patients and one or two other lower acuity patient or four or five acute medical and surgical patients

These are guidelines only, with the flexibility to increase or decrease based on patient acuity and clinical judgement of the relevant Hospital or Ward in-charge, but will also include consultation with affected ward/unit nurses.
 - c) In circumstances of caring for end of life care palliative patients or paediatric patients, a reduced workload may be considered by the relevant Hospital or Ward in-charge (noting decision making authority), taking into account the palliative or paediatric patient's clinical care needs.

- d) There will be a minimum of two (2) nurses rostered overnight.
- e) The NUM shall have minimum of 32 management hours (or 4 shifts) per week or 8 shifts per fortnight. These hours are indirect nursing hours and therefore a patient load is not to be allocated.

3.2 Mental Health - the minimum WHPPD of 4.79 WHPPD weekdays, 4.13 WHPPD weekends referred to at 2.3, is in consideration of, and subject to, the following:
