

Friday 17 May (cont.)

Medical Historical and Research Seminar

11 am: Neil Gollan lecture : Professor Peter Collingnon. Introduction by Dr John Morris
Professor Peter Collingnon works as an Infectious Diseases physician. He is also a microbiologist and is director of the Infectious Diseases Unit and Microbiology at The Canberra Hospital. He is also involved in teaching and is a Professor at the Medical School of the Australian National University.

7 pm : Clifford Craig Medical Research Trust (CCMRT) Ball, Hotel Grand Chancellor. Tickets from CCMRT office phone 63487010

Saturday 18 May

10 am : Conducted medical walk with Dr Dan Huon and toast to Dr William Russ Pugh, meet at Princes Square.

The LGH Historical Committee acknowledges the support of :

Registration:
Medical Historical Research Seminar
three-day program 15-17 May: Full Registration $60; Students $25 (incl morning and afternoon tea). Lunch will be available each day at a cost of $12
(payable on the day).

Please make cheques payable to the LGH Historical Committee and post/deliver to the Committee C/-
CEO's Office, LGH, PO Box 1963,
Launceston, 7250 or credit card payments can be made by phone to the cashier's office LGH: (03) 63487882

Further information:
Lou Partridge, CEOs Office, LGH on
phone (03) 6348 8035
lou.partridge@dhhs.tas.gov.au
Or
Paul Richards, Secretary, LGH
Historical Committee phone
(03) 6344 4241
pacrichardsl@bigpond.com

James & Diana
RAMSAY
FOUNDATION

Launceston General Hospital Sesquicentenary Program of Events

12 - 19 May 2013

Tasmanian Health
Organisation – North

Sunday 12 May

International Nurses' Day

8.30 am Breakfast

Keynote address: Ms Neroli Ellis, Branch Secretary Australian Nursing Federation

10 am Chapel Service

12.30 pm Lunch

Keynote address: Mrs Catherine Austen, Acting Executive Director of Nursing, Tasmanian Health Organisation – North.

2 pm LGH Tour

3 pm Tour of LGH Nurse's Homes

5.30 pm Evensong, LGH Dedication Service, Holy Trinity Church

Academic dress procession. Service followed by refreshments in the Narthex.

To register contact Deanna Ellis 0417 034 048 or matrondeanna@hotmail.com

Monday 13 May

Sesquicentenary Art Exhibition

11 am and 2 pm : LGH Tours meet at Charles Street reception.

5.45 pm for 6 pm: Colonial Tench to Launceston General Hospital. Sesquicentenary Art Exhibition, The Artrium, Northern Integrated Care Service, Frankland Street, Launceston.

6.30 pm: Opening by the Minister for Health, Michelle O'Byrne MP

6.45 pm: Address Dr Eric Ratcliff, Sir John Ramsay

Monday 13 May (cont.)

7 pm: Unveiling of Sir John Ramsay bronze bust (representative of the Ramsay Foundation and Mrs Patricia Fullerton, granddaughter)

Tuesday 14 May

Tour "old" LGH, The Charles Hotel

Two sessions each taking approx. one hour: 10 am and 11 am (both followed by morning tea). Tour of The Charles Hotel, public areas and some rooms open for reminiscing! Free event but numbers limited, please register with Lou Partridge on phone 63488035 or lou.partridge@dhhs.tas.gov.au.

Book Launch

6.30 pm for 7 pm: Cocktail party launch of Sesquicentenary Book, Launceston General Hospital 150 Years of Caring by the Premier of Tasmania, Lara Giddings MP. Cost $40-a-head by invitation.

Wednesday 15 May

Medical Historical and Research Seminar

9 am: Official opening of three-day seminar by His Excellency, The Honourable Peter Underwood, AC, Governor of Tasmania, Lecture Theatre, Level 2, LGH (see separate program).

11 am and 2 pm : LGH Tours meet at Charles Street reception.

5.30 pm: Civic reception, Launceston City Council, Town Hall (by invitation).

Thursday 16 May

Medical Historical and Research Seminar

8.30 – 5 pm: Seminar continues (see separate program)

6.30 for 7 pm: Scholarly lecture. Introduction by Jeremy Rockliff MP, Shadow Health Minister. Professor Len Harrison is a Senior Principal Research Fellow of the National Health and Medical Research Council (NH&MRC), Australia. He heads the Autoimmunity and Transplantation Division at the Walter and Eliza Hall Institute of Medical Research in Melbourne and is Professor/Director of the Burnet Clinical Research Unit and Department of Immunology and Allergy at the Royal Melbourne Hospital.

Friday 17 May

Medical Historical and Research Seminar

8.30 – 5 pm: Seminar continues (see separate program)

9.00 am : Keynote address, Professor Berni Einoder, Director of Surgery, LGH.

9.45 am : David Huish lecture : Introduction Dr Brian Kirkby. Professor Peter Choong is an international leader in the fields of musculoskeletal oncology and orthopaedic surgery. He is Head of the Department of Surgery at the University of Melbourne, Professor Choong is also the Professor/Director of Orthopaedics at St Vincent's Hospital and Chair of the Bone and Soft Tissue Sarcome Service at Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre.