

WORKPLACE REPRESENTATIVES

ANMF Training Calendar

The ANMF are excited to be launching the Workplace Representative Training Calendar for 2020!

Whether you are a new Rep just starting out, or you have been active in your workplace for years, we have training sessions to suit you.

How much does it cost? As a Rep, training is FREE. Visit the ANMF website or get in touch with Member Support to see what leave is available in your workplace.

Can I claim CPD? Absolutely, each session is 6 hours!

How do I register? Quickly and easily. Jump online at www.anmftas.org.au/rep and select the session, location and date that works for you.

BACK TO BASICS

The best place for new Reps to commence their training, as well as those who have never attended a training session before. By the end of the day, you will gain:

- An understanding of the foundations of the ANMF and what it means to be a Rep.
- The knowledge required to resolve low level issues in your workplace.
- Long lasting networks with ANMF staff and fellow Workplace Representatives in your area.
- Empowerment, confidence and ownership within your position as a leader advocating for your colleagues.

ADVANCING YOUR ROLE

An intermediate training session is best suited to Reps who have attended the Back to Basics training, or have been active in their workplace for several years. This session will provide you with:

- A solid understanding of the industrial framework and your ability to influence change in the workplace.
- Skills and confidence to problem solve industrial matters.
- The knowledge required to navigate award and agreement documents.
- New and existing networks with ANMF staff and fellow Reps in your area.

LEADING CHANGE

For experienced Reps who have completed both the Back to Basics and Advancing Your Role training. You will leave this session with advanced training in:

- Industrial campaigning.
- Negotiation skills.
- Benefits of empowerment in the workplace.
- Leadership – What makes a good leader and how can you become a positive leader in your workplace?

Those who complete this training will have the opportunity to attend the ANMF Branch Council as an observer, opening the possibility to nominate for Council.
