

WORKPLACE REPRESENTATIVES

OK I AM IN, WHAT'S NEXT?

Great! Let's get started.

Firstly, don't worry if there is already a Rep in your workplace, ward or unit, it is possible to have more than one - after all, two reference points are better than one. Simply follow the steps below or visit www.anmftas.org.au to learn more about the process.

- 1 Complete the first section of the nomination form included in this brochure, being careful not to miss any fields.
- 2 Next, you will need two fee-paying ANMF members to support your nomination by filling in their details before you sign and date the form.
- 3 Send the completed application form via email to enquiries@anmftas.org.au or post to Reply Paid 70389, Hobart, TAS 7000
- 4 Once your application has been received, we will notify you with a notice of Rep Nomination. You are required to display this notice publicly in your workplace for 7-10 days.
- 5 After the required time has passed, we will be in touch to confirm your nomination. In the event that there are any objections, a ballot will be held, and you will be notified of the results.

WHAT IS A REP?

ANMF Workplace Representative's or 'Reps' as we affectionately refer to them, provide the vital link between the ANMF team in the office and members in the workplace. Reps act as a support system for members, while also promoting policies and campaigns, spreading the word about activities and events, participating in enterprise agreement negotiations, and most importantly, encouraging others in need of advice or representation to join the ANMF.

Put simply, as an ANMF Rep you are a resource for current and potential members to access when they need. Don't worry though, you are not alone in this, you will receive ongoing support and guidance along the way. You will develop a strong connection with the ANMF and be treated to some great benefits too.

WHAT DOES A REP DO?

- Acts as a 'go to' person in the workplace to support ANMF members around any workplace issues
- Directs members to the ANMF when needed (for example, to gain professional advice or support)
- Understands the benefits of being an ANMF member
- Is an advocate for members in the workplace
- Updates the ANMF noticeboard when needed
- Has regular contact with ANMF Organisers

HOW INVOLVED WILL I BE?

As this is a voluntary role, you can commit whatever time you can to being a Rep.
