

SAFE HOSPITALS SAVE LIVES

TAKE ACTION WITH CONFIDENCE

Industrial Action Begins Monday,
19 August - Are You Ready?

From Monday, 19 August, nurses, midwives, and Assistants in Nursing (AINs) at your workplace will be taking part in important industrial action to stand up for fair working conditions and better care for our patients.

But remember, only ANMF members are covered to participate in this crucial action.

Why Do You Need to Be a Member?

If you're not an ANMF member, you're not covered to stand alongside your colleagues during this industrial action. By joining the ANMF, you'll be fully protected and have the power to take part in making a real difference in your workplace.

Not an ANMF member?

Scan to find out more and join

Join the
ANMF
today!

Membership Gives You:

- Protection during industrial action: Only members are legally covered to participate.
- A strong collective voice: Your membership strengthens our ability to negotiate better conditions and outcomes.
- Professional support: Get access to expert industrial and legal advice whenever you need it.
- Member only discounts via member advantage.
- Representation by Nurses and Midwives who understand your profession.

#SafeHospitalsSaveLives
anmftas.org.au

Authorised by the Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation
Tasmanian Branch Secretary Emily Shepherd, August 2024