

PROGRAM

ACUTE CARE CONFERENCE

Hobart • Tuesday 15 October 2024

8.30-8.55	REGISTRATIONS
9.00-9.10	Welcome & Opening Address Emily Shepherd • ANMF Tasmanian Branch Secretary
9.10-10.00	The Nurse Practitioner Role in Preventing Acute Admissions Kerrie Duggan • Cygnet Family Practice Co-Owner and Nurse Practitioner
10.00-10.40	Sepsis: Crucial Early Symptoms and Effective Responses Alison Spicer • Nurse Practitioner and Paramedic
10.40-10.50	Sponsor Talk HESTA
10.50-11.10	MORNING BREAK AND NETWORKING OPPORTUNITY
11.10-11.45	The Role of an Enrolled Nurse in an acute care setting Ashley White • HERC Education Manager
11.45-12.25	The Quiet Pathway: General Anaesthesia for Patients with Intellectual Disabilities Lucy Gardam • Registered Nurse and UTAS Educator
12.25-12.35	Sponsor Talk Nurses & Midwives Health
12.35-1.30	LUNCH AND NETWORKING OPPORTUNITY
1.30-1.40	Sponsor Talk ME Bank
1.40-2.20	From Pandemic Response to Everyday Care: Virtual Healthcare in the Community Laura Pyszkowski • Department of Health, Tasmania
2.20-3.05	ANMF Health Delegation Forum New Zealand – Preliminary Findings Dawn Reid • Registered Nurse and Midwife
3.05-3.20	ANMF Health Delegation Forum New Zealand (Q & A Session)
3.20-3.40	AFTERNOON TEA AND NETWORKING OPPORTUNITY
3.40-4.00	Nurse Midwife Health Program Australia (NMHPA) Heather Pickard • NMHPA CEO
4.00-4.15	Presentations / Evaluations / Day Close Emily Shepherd • ANMF Tasmanian Branch Secretary

General Registrations: Close midday Friday 11 October 2024.

enquiries@anmftas.org.au

(03) 6223 6777 or 1800 001 241 (outside Hobart)

anmftas.org.au/acute24

DISCLAIMER: Times and speakers may change prior to conference.

Proudly sponsored by

